BPW Gives $100 To Aid Mentally Retarded Children

Giving that assurance was Mrs. Joseph Rosenbach, president of the Fox Lake Retarded Children PTA group who outlined the work being done with the children in this area.

She told how the school gets money to continue its work and the training teachers must undertake to instruct at the school.

AT THE CLOSE of the meeting, the BPW presented a check for $100 to Mrs. Rosenbach to help continue the work. There are two children from the Antioch area attending the school, only one of its kind in this vicinity.

The BPW was meeting in a regular session to discuss ways to rekindle interest in the club, says Mrs. Joseph Patrovsky, Sr., president of the group. At present there are some 24 members.

Several other projects will be planned for the club for the coming year, she added.

Expect Huge Attendance Monday On City Plan

Interest is high in Salem Township for next Monday's public meeting in Central High School gym on what will be a sales meeting presenting pro and con views for organizing the vast area into a city.

Ads have been placed in every paper circulating in the area to announce the meeting by the Subdivision's Association of which Richard Nuytens is secretary. The meeting will be conducted by Gilbert Elselder, president of the group.

BESIDES VIEWS presented by the opposing sides, the Township Board will present a list of pointed questions in hopes both sides can provide answers to "facts people should know."

This week in The Antioch News on page 2, a few points in favor of the plan are given by John Schnurr, Wilmet, a former township supervisor. He is identified with a group that is highly in favor of the plan. The Antioch News tried to get a presentation of facts against the plan but George Illges, Paddock Lake, said gruffly, "we don't want to tip our hand" and all his group's information will be presented at the meeting Monday night.

Township Chairman Earl Elfers reiterated his personal view as being against the plan this week and called it "somewhat premature." There is not enough population per square mile for this "premature" plan, he said.

An estimated 3,000 residents are expected to attend.

Clean-up Week Begins Apr. 27 in Lindenhurst

April 27-May 2 will be clean-up week in Lindenhurst and on the final day, trucks will come around to pick up unwanted material accumulated during the winter.

Trustee Rhonda Sanders has been named coordinator for the project. A special appeal is being made for owners of vacant lots to clear the property of refuse and help make the community better appearing.

Seek Information On Bus Service Usage To Loop

Representatives from Antioch are looking for names, addresses and information regarding usage which might be expected from residents in this area in bus service to the Chicago loop.

Armed with the information, the representatives will appear at Illinois Commerce Commission hearings in about two weeks to plead the case of residents in an attempt to get year-round transportation to the loop.

HEARINGS BEGAN Monday on the question of what bus service will serve the north suburban area and while what line serves the area is of no importance, Atty. Ed Jacobs will argue that service is needed. (See earlier story on page nine.)

Transportation at present is one train to and from the city each day on the Soo Line and summer service on a once a day basis is offered by bus.

PROPOSED ROUTES shown in applications of Bluebird Coach Lines, Inc. and American Coach Co., Inc., are identical but propose summer service only. The commission will hear these requests.

Jacobs says there is not enough time remaining to form a complete survey and has asked The Antioch News to forward to him information from residents who desire and would use year round service. Any other information which would be beneficial to others in the area should be included, Jacobs says.

Letters should be sent to The Antioch News, Box 538, Antioch, Ill.

School Boards Reorganize After Elections

School boards were reorganized this week after elections Saturday returned most candidates to office but slipped in a smattering of newcomers.

In a good vote at the Antioch High School district, first time office-seeker Dr. Richard Ripley, the hand-picked candidate of the school board garnered more votes than present board members. He picked up 636 supporters to Arthur Seekatz' 633 and Mrs. Ruth Seyfarth's 624. Robert Chandler, a former teacher and who was running for the board for the second time since his dismissal, got 279 votes. Chandler, who said he was running "in protest" to the high school administration, got more votes than he had expected.

INTEREST WAS HIGH in the Grass Lake School district where six persons ran for the three offices. Elected were Wayne Barker, 316, Frank Benes, Jr., 288 and Lawrence E. Yopp, 316. Barker and Benes are incumbents.

A write-in vote was cast for Lawrence E. Schultz whose name was erroneously supplied to The Antioch News last week and published. Other candidates polled as follows: James Ferrier, 112, George Pierce, 129, and Michael Wojnowiak, 94. The election saw heaviest balloting in recent years in the district.

At Antioch Grade School, a tie vote was broken when the board drew straws Tuesday night. The 123-vote tie was between Mrs. Joseph Patrovsky Sr. and Irene Gable, both present board members. Mrs. Patrovsky was the eventual victor in the drawing. Others elected were Norman Jede, whom board members re-elected president, and Ernest Westlund, a newcomer. Jede got 239 votes and Westlund (continued on page 12)

Public Meeting on Hospital Plan Sunday

Efforts to explain and enlist support for the proposed Countryside hospital move into the eastern section of the area it would serve with a big public meeting Sunday at 2:30 p. m. at the Oakland School.

Officials of every civic and governmental group in the area east of Antioch and Lake Villa have been invited and will hear the officials of the hospital association. Representatives of the volunteer group from Fox Lake may also be present.

ONE OF THE organizers of the meeting is Mrs. Edward Rundgren of Lake Villa, a volunteer who is described as "on fire" by George Heuer, president of the hospital association. Mrs. Rundgren has already proposed a plan for taking the collection of money to the people to make it a people's hospital.

A site for the hospital is still pending and it now becomes of prime importance for any further planning, Heuer says. He noted that people won't donate any money unless they know where the hospital is to be.

However, funds still can't be collected until approval is received from the treasury dept., and that may not be for "four or five months," Rep. Marguerite Stitt Church advised The Antioch News this week.

MONEY FROM government sources may not be available for this project because the area doesn't need a hospital as badly as some other areas of the state, the association has been advised by Rep. William J. Murphy, state representative. Money is allotted on a "critical area" basis, he says.

However, planning will continue as before with the proposal being explained to residents, Heuer said.

Following the Oakland School meeting Sunday, a similar meeting will be held on April 26 in Round Lake for the communities in the southern area to be served by the proposed hospital.

As soon as a site is selected, architects can begin drawing plans for the hospital. Then people will be able to see what they will get for their money and know where it will be to best serve them, the president added.

A 25-bed hospital is the absolute minimum in mind and a 100-bed structure is what the group would like, Heuer says.

Interest Focused On LV Lindenhurst In Village Elections On Tuesday

Diligent citizens will troop to the poles again next Tuesday to name officers for municipalities in the area.

Antioch voters will have only three candidates to pick from for the three vacancies on the village board. They are Herman Holbek, Ed Vos and Frank Applebey, all current officeholders.

HOWEVER, AT LAKE Villa and Lindenhurst real battles are in the offing with a surplus number of candidates.

At Lake Villa there will be seven on the ballot for the three posts available. Incumbents Kaurin Karolius, Anthony Sciacero and Frank Slazes, Sr., all seek to repeat and Charles Pester, Donald Cremin, Ruth Bocox and Henry Reidel are opposing them.

Polls in the village hall are open from 6 a. m. to 6 p. m.

AT LINDENHURST a bonny battle will be resolved at the polls. The Citizens Party offers incumbents Lowell Graves and John Slove for trustees and Lyle Mercer for the trustee post vacated by Mrs. Rhonda Sanders. Mrs. Rae Gibbons is the party's choice for village clerk.

The C-P Party has picked Alex Bartling, Georgia Matthies and Charles Pawlowski as trustee candidates and Mrs. Margaret Eisner for the village clerk post. Both parties selected their candidates at caucuses held in February. Polls will be open from 6 a. m. to 6 p. m. also.

New Money Source? Others' Sales Taxes Eyed By Lindenhurst

A new source of revenue for all communities may be realized if efforts of Lindenhurst to secure additional money are successful. The plan is to get sales tax money on goods taken from stocks in other communities but actually sold in the village.

Attorney Ellis Fuqua told the Lindenhurst board of trustees Monday night that a reading of the Retailers' Municipal tax law indicates that the village can claim the tax money now collected by communities at the point of storage.

THE PLAN, if successful, would cover all goods sold in Lindenhurst by dairies, fuel oil dealers and the like but would exempt mail order purchases. The theory is that the merchandise is not sold until delivered and the community at the point of sale should receive the sales tax money.

Fuqua will send letters to approximately 20 firms from Antioch to Waukegan which do business in Lindenhurst in this manner. They will be asked to report this sales tax money to be credited to Lindenhurst instead of the community in which the business is located. Fuqua will check also with the state to be sure companies are given proper credit to Lindenhurst sales.

Lindenhurst, with an estimated population of 1,100 and only one business located there gets about $50 per month in retail sales tax money. Lake Villa, with an estimated population of 900 and some 30 businesses receives about $900 monthly from sales tax funds.

THREE SPECIAL meetings of the village board will be held before the next regular meeting. One will be to canvass votes in the Tuesday election, one will be to form a new village board and the third meeting (continued on page 12)

Begin Cleaning, Remodeling Of Swimming Pool

Temperatures climbed to the mid-70's and work began on the Antioch Swimming pool Wednesday in preparation for what sponsors of the pool hope will be its most successful season.

Wednesday was devoted to general cleaning but plans were unfolded for a major remodeling of the pool to make it more appealing to adults. Most important of the projects will be doubling of the patio to 24' x 60' and erection of a canvas windbreak on three sides of the pool and patio.

IRV CAREY IS in charge of cleaning and maintenance this year for the Antioch Service Corp., operators of the pool.

A badminton court and refreshment stand will be added also and it is hoped deck furniture and umbrellas can be added by the end of the swimming season.

Ticket sales will begin May 9 at a giant kick-off at the Lions Club Spring Dance in the Lyons-Ryan Ford showroom. For a week only, season passes will be offered at a special rate.

Ken Smouse will be director of the pool again this summer.

3 Hurt as Auto Smacks Another Mon.

There were no arrests in the two car crash Monday night near Lindenhurst when one car smashed into the rear of another attempting to make a turn.

Three persons were injured slightly and treated by a Lake Villa physician following the accident.

Mrs. Clara E. Davis, 38, of Lindenhurst, told officers she was stopped and waiting to make a turn into Prospect Dr. when the auto driven by James D. Oilschlager, 18, Lake Villa, hit her car from the rear.

The three injured were riding in the Oilschlager car.

800 At LV Not Satisfied With Tax Explanation

By Jerry Nordmark

"There has been a discrimination against the property owners of this township," an angry Lake Villa township citizen said Monday night.

Severe individual inequities in assessed property valuations do occur and, when they become sizeable enough, are finally brought to public attention by one means or another.

THIS HAS HAPPENED in Lake Villa Township.

An estimated 800 disgruntled Lake Villa township property owners heard and argued with Robert Jasper, Lake County supervisor of assessments, for 2½ hours Monday evening in a hot, smoke-filled school gym in Lake Villa. After about two hours of debate—town meeting style—some people began straggling toward the gym exits appearing to feel little had been or would be accomplished.

But some things were accomplished at that lively "township" meeting.

THE PRESENT SYSTEM of arriving at an assessed valuation of a property was explained by Jasper. He told of state laws that govern assessment of property. He said that his office had to follow these laws.

"We are striving for the same level of 'assessment' in each area," he assured a hushed but explosive crowd.

Those who listened found it difficult in many cases to agree with such a statement because their property was either (1) assessed at more than 55 per cent of "market" value; (2) valued at a price greater than a corresponding property on a very similar location with similar improvements; or (3) assessed at a value disproportionate to the owner's purchase price and what he termed the present "market" price of his property.

JASPER REPEATEDLY said that the assessment is worked out according to averages and "market" value of the property. He emphasized sized that the multiplier of 1.618 (adjusted property valuation to relate Lake Villa Township property to that of other townships) did not change the relative values of properties within a given township.

"It blows them up—magnifies them," he said. Jasper indicated that the multiplier was put in effect because of a state Supreme Court ruling that property taxes "shall" be equalized between townships. The assessment is based on property market value at a certain time and 60 per cent of that assessed total value is the base for taxation, he said. Lake County tax base was $15.5 million; this year $17.5 million; with the multiplier added this year it becomes $27 million, a tax base increase of over 61 per cent.

(NOTE: THIS is not actual money. Rather it is the total assets of Lake Villa township property owners as related to the total assets of the property owners of other townships. Consequently, it is theoretically at least, possible for the tax "rate" to decrease. Each taxpayer could possibly pay less per $100 worth of property if the price of government and its services does not increase greatly. But the property owner could also pay more, dollarwise, because his property has been valued at a higher amount.)

An enraged citizen said, "We get no sewers, streets, very little police protection. We do not have schools but we are paying for services other areas get because our valuation is higher than other areas."

"Another citizen said, 'I paid $15,000 my house. Before, it was assessed at $6,500. Now it is assessed at $11,600, about 75 per cent of what he paid for it. Do you call that fair?' Jasper said it was not fair and that he was sure such an evaluation would be lowered if he had a hearing."

"Your complaint must be based on 'market' value. If you feel your assessment is over 55 per cent of that value it will be corrected," Jasper said.

MANY WONDERED about the tax waivers they had received. If you do not sign a waiver you will have a hearing, Jasper noted. One man asked if the waiver for 1958 was signed if he still had the right to protest it in 1959? Jasper answered "yes."

The core of the problem seems to be the fact that "market" value was used as a basis for property evaluation. Harry Lindhorst said, "If we are going to use market value as a base—what one is willing to pay for a property at a given time—it should be based on all property whether new or old. . . . Some method has to be devised to see that every piece of property is assessed at its particular value."

Robert Wagner, president of the Fox Lake Hills Property Owners Assn., said, "We should look for a set standard of values."

"If you want something or other than market value you have to go to the legislature and change the law. Until we change the law we have to go along with this ruling of appraisal," Jasper said.

IT WAS NOTED that there are property owners in Lake Villa township who are assessed far below 55 per cent of market value because their property is judged to be lower. Another big problem then appeared: If the new home owners agree to be assessed at 55 per cent of the market value, they will be paying more than their share of property tax until the remaining portion of township citizens are assessed 55 per cent of true market value. This is inequity of assessment; of appraisal of market value.

More meetings of the Fox Lake Hills Property Owners Assn. are to be scheduled soon.

Wagner urged other property owner groups to join with his group in their attempt to get more accurate assessments.

DEAR READER News EditorialsDon't Try To Misunderstand! If There's A View, You'll Know It

One of the big problems of life is being clearly understood. Everyone has something to say and yet when he does say it, someone makes a wrong interpretation.

The Antioch News, whose job is to say things, has experienced many degrees of being misunderstood in past months. Because of the mere publishing of a legitimate news story, some feelings have been stirred up with the end result that some folks feel the newspaper is "against" the problem outlined.

A case in point is the report of Antioch's swimming pool being in debt to the village for two year's water bill. Some feel that the News erred in printing the story—in letting the public know.

The real question is, should a paper print ALL the news, making all attempts to be factual, or should it in fear, hold some back? We mean fear that the paper will lose "friends" and advertising because of the publishing and fear that readers will read separate meanings into the article.

The newspaper's obligation is to the readers—all the readers—and any event which is factual, will be reported. Sometimes news hurts and that is indeed unfortunate but a newspaper exists to fulfill the public's right to know, especially about local problems.

What really is disturbing about the whole swimming pool incident is that apparently some feel that The Antioch News is riding the swimming pool committee. This is not true for we sympathize with them and earnestly seek a solution.

Often a newspaper is called to print news of auto accidents and highway deaths. We print these stories but that doesn't mean we are in favor of roadway slaughter. A newspaper prints stories of unrest of some citizens with public officials. We print these stories but that doesn't mean we are in favor of ouster of the officials. A newspaper prints stories of crime, violence, fires, and all manner of disgusting events but that doesn't mean we are in favor of them.

Apply the same rule to every story in the news columns. If there is to be an opinion on it, that place is in this column. And make no mistake about it—if The Antioch News has an opinion, it will be stated as clearly and concisely as possible. Readers will not have to busy themselves in attempting to say "I wonder what they mean by that" in reference to the news.

For Opposition - And For Support

Opposition is good in all things. If nothing else, it sharpens one. Even the Creator in making the world felt a need for opposition and we have the strongest one can imagine.

At present a group holds an opposition view as to administration of the high school here. For two weeks this paper has published letters from the group—and has been criticized for doing it.

Be it known that this newspaper makes no apologies for printing the letters and stands ready to provide an outlet for anyone else holding a supporting or an opposite view on the status of anything in this region.

We do so because we feel that if there is anything to the opposition's claims, then it is in the public interest that they be aired, analyzed and acted upon, if need be. If there is nothing to allegations of an opponent of an existing situation, then the matter will die of its own weight and the proponents of the idea will have to swallow their words.

It is the makers of new claims that have to prove their views and if they can put the existing situation on the defensive, is not that good for us all?

Guest Editorial

By Jack Schnurr
Former Supervisor, Salem Township

The residents of Salem Township are facing a serious problem. Is it in their best interest to become a city of the fourth class? The answer to the question can only be found by first analyzing the present situation in the town along with the inevitable growth that will come in the area; and then by examining the differences provided by Wisconsin statutes for operation of cities and townships.

Salem is a rapidly growing area of probably some 7,500 residents. It presently has almost 60 separate recorded subdivisions; nearly 70 miles of town roads; over 9,000 parcels of property on the tax rolls; and an equalized valuation of over $23,000,000. A very conservative estimate of the situation five years from now is: 15,000 residents, $40,000,000 of equalized value and similar increases in other municipal statistics.

During 1958 cities received over $900.00 per mile more than townships in state assistance on roads and streets, a net increase of some $60,000 per year to the city with 70 miles of roads. Cities have wards; with alderman and county supervisors from each ward. With eight wards the city would have eight members on the county board of supervisors instead of merely one. The city councils have a representative from each ward instead of the outdated town system of just two supervisors elected at large where no one really gets represented. Thus each citizen actually has a much greater voice in his government.

The area of a city cannot be reduced without its permission by annexations or piecemeal incorporations. Towns are always completely helpless to prevent such operations even if it is harmful to the entire remaining portion of the town. In like fashion cities may annex desirable adjoining land areas to improve the city; towns have no such powers. Besides their power to annex, cities also hold strong powers over street and subdivision layouts for three miles beyond their limits. This allows them to provide for orderly future growth; again towns have no such powers.

Cities have more and better control of local zoning and building restrictions. Cities have a definite area in which to plan and develop; because of the above mentioned jeopardy of piecemeal annexations and incorporations towns cannot effectively plan for the future or improve themselves at the present. The increasing taxes of today are the result of no planning in the past. A well planned city can actually reduce over-all taxes to the residents. Not by a few cents or a few dollars but by thousands of dollars in a city of some 30 square miles.

When a person speaks of the costs of cities he should remember that the costs are only for services requested by the residents. Usually this service can also be provided by the township form of government, but the costs there as well as in the city will be paid by the residents. In many cases however townships lack legal authority to efficiently provide necessary services.

Many laws have been passed by the Wisconsin Legislature to protect persons living in congested areas. The residents of Salem township should incorporate and thereby receive these advantages intended for them.

Letters to The Editor

I would like to inform anybody who would be interested about E. Schlunz Builders, owner Ernst Schlunz, Jr., belonging to the union.

He has been a union man for 30 years, and still is, and always will be. There have been certain people talking against him about his not being union and a few other things they know nothing about.

It seems when a person tries to make an honest living there are always a few people who try to ruin them. I have a good idea who these people are and if I can prove it I'll take them to court and make them prove they are wrong.

It seems when a person retires from working they have nothing to do but watch what other people are doing.

If your friends don't read this paper, tell them about this letter to the Editor or let them read your paper. Mrs. Ernest Schlunz Lake Villa

Eleanor Schley Named Girl's State Delegate for Legion Auxiliary

At the American Legion Auxiliary Unit meeting last Friday evening it was announced that the girl chosen by Antioch High School to represent Antioch Auxiliary Unit this year at Girls State, is Eleanor Schley, a junior at the school. Norma Brown, also a high school junior, was chosen alternate.

Miss Schley will attend Girls State session at MacMurray College, Jacksonville, Ill., in June. Along with many other girls from other units in the district, she will be guided and counseled by a staff of Legion Auxiliary members who help these young women carry out the "do-it-yourself" government program.

The Pan-American chairman of the Unit, Mrs. Maude Johnson, gave a program on El Salvador, the country studied this year. This little country is the smallest and most densely populated country in Central America. Mrs. Johnson's program told of the geographical formation, the schools, churches and industries of the country. El Salvador is one of the largest producers of coffee in the world.

DELEGATES TO THE Patriotic Conference held in Chicago March 19 were Pearl Anderson, Addie Horton and Carolyn Horan. They gave reports of the business transacted at the conference.

Plans for the annual Legion and Auxiliary Carnival to be held in July are under way. President Carolyn Horan appointed Vera Horton, Louise Radke and Eva Gaylord as a committee to work with the Legion Carnival committee to further plans.

TEN MEMBERS of Antioch Legion Post and Auxiliary helped with a party at Downey Hospital Tuesday evening, April 7, for 39 patients. Music, games and lunch were the entertainment of the evening. Those attending from Antioch were: Mr. and Mrs. John L. Horan, Mr. and Mrs. Jack W. Horan, Mrs. Myra Randall, Mrs. Pearl Anderson, Mrs. Addie Horton, George Swenson, Al Swenson and Mrs. Lila Palinski, who helped entertain with guitar music and songs.

Poppies for the Legion and Auxiliary Poppy Day have been ordered and plans made for their distribution.

Disabled veterans in hospitals and workshops across the nation manufacture the crepe paper flowers. They are the hand-made product of men who fought for our country's freedom, and who still suffer from the ravages of war.

The American public should feel it a great privilege and honor to wear one of these little red Memorial Poppies on Poppy Day. It is only by the sacrifice of those who gave their all for their country that we, today, are enjoying a free America.

ATCH REPAIRING

Customers Are Getting Tickets In LV

Owners of businesses have no control over whether people get tickets for illegal parking on village streets.

Roy Falch, owner of the Lake Villa Laundromat, had that point clarified in an appearance before the Lake Villa Village Board last week when he told of numerous customers of his being ticketed for illegal parking.

POLICE CHIEF Joe Torri noted that the people, mostly women, were indeed illegally parked and deserved tickets. It should be none of the businessmen's concern. However, Falch indicated that he had a parking lot in the rear which was not being used to its capacity and people insisted parking on the street. He asked the village to consider painting of signs and curbing in front of his place to help guide people in parking right.

Earl Hucker of Hucker Motors also noted to board members that his customers were being ticketed for over two-hour parking near his business. He asked for posting of more signs notifying drivers of the parking regulations on Cedar Ave.

The village will post all available signs and purchase new ones as well as paint curbs as soon as possible.

YOUNG RICHARD VANDERWERKER wishes he was old enough to try for the handsome trophy which goes to the winner of the Antioch News Bowling Tournament which began this week at the Antioch Bowl. You can see he'll not give serious competition yet for some years but he gets the feel of the ball anyway as he eyes the trophy.

Antioch Wins First Game Of Season 11-9

Antioch capitalized on Round Lake errors and four timely extra base wallops to win its first baseball game of the year here Tuesday by 11 to 9.

Though there were almost as many errors as there were hits, it was a case of Round Lake outfumbling Antioch in the late innings. There were only six earned runs in the 20 actually scored with Antioch getting four earned.

IMPROVED HITTING and some good base running marked the Sequoits' play and except for some mental lapses by the locals in the late innings, the score might not have been so close. For Round Lake, their 13 hits were the first of the season after having been victims of two no-hitters.

Antioch meets tough Grant there on Friday in what should be the best test for the Sequoits of the still-young season.

Tryouts for the new Twin Lakes semi-pro baseball team will be held next Sunday at the Fox River Park diamond in preparation for play in the southern division of the Central Wisconsin League.

The team is the same one which has performed under the Wilmot banner in former years but is now sponsored by Twin Lakes businessmen, says Robert Kruzan, manager of the squad.

29,993 Scout units with 1,000,000 boys and leaders operate in rural areas.

New Rules for Boats Includes Safety Measures

New regulations for boating in Illinois, drawn to meet the heavy increase of boats and boat owners in recent years, were introduced in the House of Representatives last week with the backing of the administration of Governor Stratton. The new boat regulation and safety act, which includes licensing provisions for motorboats, inboard and outboard, is designed to increase water safety.

Governor Stratton, in announcing the introduction of the measure, pointed out that there are now more than 350,000 motorboats in operation in the state, and that the number is growing steadily. The rate of growth in numbers is estimated at 40,000 boats a year.

Little League Season Plans Begin Sunday

Game Postponed

Cold weather forced a postponement of last Friday's scheduled league baseball game with Ela-Vernon on the Lake Zurich diamond. The game will be played sometime in May.

News of Lakes ports

"RIGHT THERE IS WHERE he put it the whole game" says catcher Fred Lentz after the Falcon's had won their first game of the baseball season by a convincing 16-6 score over Wilmot. Honors go to pitcher Dave Willems who came on in relief in the first inning to strike out 11. Wilmot got only four hits.

THE BALL WAS high and, allowed speedy Dave Ellis to make a safe slide into third base in the Salem season opener Monday. Ellis died on third this time but his teammates scored plenty in a 16-6 win over township rival Wilmot.

Salem Toys With, Then Smashes Wilmot By 16-6

Like a cat with a mouse, the Falcons of Salem toyed with Wilmot's Panthers Monday afternoon, then at the last minute, seemingly tiring of the game, made the kill by a 16-6 margin. The baseball game was first of the season for Salem, second for Wilmot.

The high-flying birds of Coach Bill Becker held almost even through the six innings before exploding for 11 runs in the top of the seventh frame. They accomplished this without making an out and the canto ended with orders to deliberately fan so the game could be completed before dark.

SENIOR DAVE WILLEMS was the star of the contest which ended up almost no-contest, as he whiffed 11 Panthers over the seven innings. He did not play the entire game, coming in relief of Gary Doerflinger when Wilmot had slipped across three runs in the first inning to match and go ahead of Salem's two.

The big bats of Central's veteran crew were held to three doubles and a triple with Dave Erickson being the batting star. He collected one of each in the one-sided fray besides a single. Every Falcon regular got at least one hit in the fray.

Wilmot was held to only four hits but one of them was Platts' home run in the fourth inning which drove in another run. The four hits for the Panthers were their first of the year after having been no-hit in the opener with St. Mary's of Kenosha on the weekend.

All the men in the subdivision are invited to attend these practices as the team is planning on entering the Antioch League.

Also, anyone interested in playing golf should contact Gene Lombardo at JU 7-0851, or Ed Groh at EL 6-5203. Those interested in archery should call Rocco Emma at JU 7-0168. Rocco also says that an archery range is set up in the big barn by Gavin North School for those residents who wish to use it.

The subdivision's first Welcoming Tea was held Sunday. It was attended by approximately 61 women from all three units. Petits fours, finger sandwiches, coffee and tea were served buffet style. Afterwards, everyone had a fine time getting acquainted with each other.

Those attending wish to thank the Women's Auxiliary for a very fine time, and it is hoped that more such activities will be held in the near future. A special thanks to the Rev. Fish for letting the women use the Holy Family Church hall for their tea.

'Off the Track,' Sr. Play Of Salem HS on Friday

The Senior Class of Central High School will present the play "Off the Track" Friday, April 17, at 8 p. m. at the Central High School gym.

This play is a comedy in three acts that will make you sit up and take notice of the colorful characters, who are thrown together due to an unfortunate train accident, and are gathered in an isolated railroad station. There is a taste of mystery to keep you on the edge of your seat when Mrs. Vanderventer's pearl necklace worth $10,000 is discovered missing. You will find it interesting to see this courtroom drama unfold.

STUDENT DIRECTORS are Kathy Lulling and Bill Weinholdt who join together with advisers Mr. Valente and Mr. Brice in introducing the cast as follows:

Don Kramer playing John Morgan; Louis Prange as Bill Lindsay; Brian Bohlen as Silas Dobbins; Ann Burns as Flickie Nelson; Dona Gilman as Betty Phillips; Bonnie Kibar as Joan Parker; Joyce Olsen as Mrs. Guarino; Rita Heffernan as Antonia Guarino; Kenneth Lichthardt as Oscar Pozenby; Dale Kerkman as Willie Woodson; Pat Mentink as Evalina Bumpass; Judy Epping as Mrs. Reginald Vanderventer, and Barbara Day as Miss Pidge Mc-Dougal.

Tickets may be obtained in advance from any member of the Senior class, or at the door on April 17.

To be happy, you should do something every day to make other people happy—even if it's merely to let them alone.

In a '59 MERCURY you see things you never saw before . . . it has the biggest windshield of all, and the lion's share of comfort ideas!

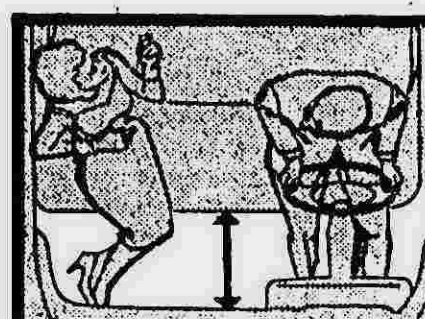

"I finally have room for my feet, even when I ride in the middle." Mercury cut the center floor hump in half.

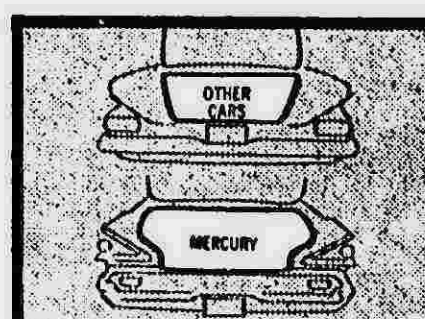

"It's a lot easier for me to get in and out of the '59 Mercury." Door openings are wider—6 full inches in all! Higher, too.

"I don't bang my head and knees anymore." Mercury moved corner post forward, cleared extra room overhead.

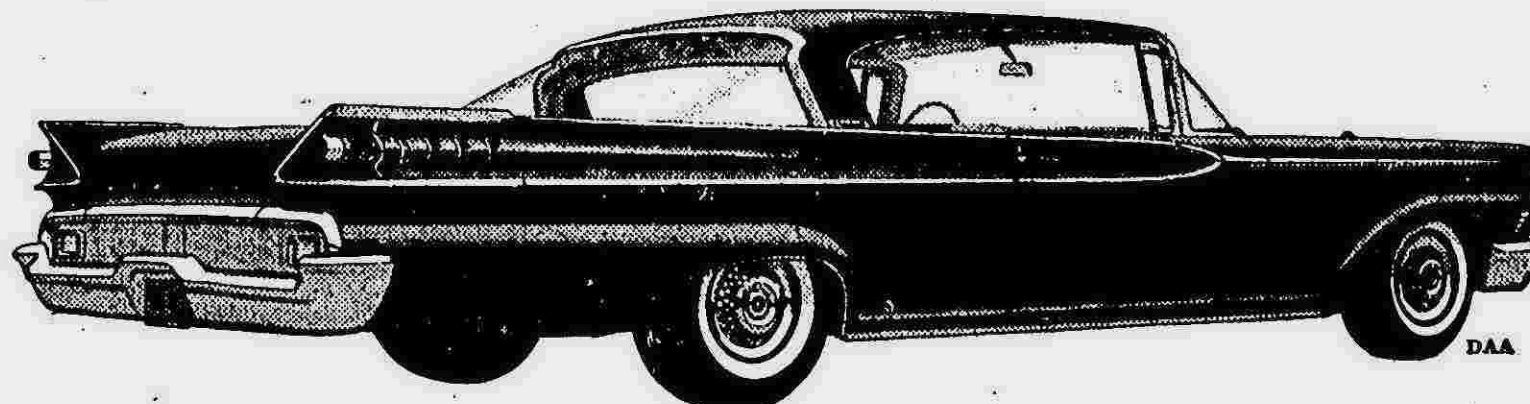

"Look at all the stretch-out room in the front seat!" Mercury's moved the instrument panel 9 inches forward.

"At last I can get every suitcase I own into the vacation-size trunk." The wider, lower opening is easy to get at, too.

Karen Lightsey Gets Prize at Press Meeting

Three members of the Tom-Tom staff, Karen Lightsey, Barbara Stokes, and Joanne Masek, and the adviser, Miss Cleo Hueber, attended the Northern Illinois High School Press Conference at DeKalb last Saturday. This conference is sponsored jointly by Alpha Phi Gamma, national journalism fraternity, and by the Division of Regional Services of Northern Illinois University.

After a general session, the students were divided into groups according to their jobs on their newspapers. Discussions were held with journalism professors and professional journalists as discussion leaders.

ONE OF THE features of the conference was a news-writing contest in which one student from each school wrote a news article on a speech made at the conference. Karen Lightsey entered the contest for Antioch High, and was awarded second prize, a ball point pen and a certificate. Karen had her picture taken with Karin Walsh, city editor of the Chicago Sun-Times, who was the featured luncheon speaker. This picture will probably appear in the next issue of the Tom-Tom.

After the conference, the girls had some time to take a look at some informal college life on the campus.

Registration Starts, Office Works on Job

In the office of Antioch High, the coming of spring means that the annual project of registration must get under way. It is a difficult job and entails a great deal of work. For this reason, it is begun in the spring of each year and very often is not completed until the end of the summer.

All freshman, sophomore and junior students have completed registering for the subjects they wish to take next year, and representatives have been sent to each of the grammar schools in the area to distribute registration cards to every eighth grade student planning to enter Antioch High in the fall.

Students Take Over Classes for One Day

By Dani Stratton

Wednesday, April 8, the annual Student Government Day was held. The purpose of this day is to give the seniors that participate in it an idea of what goes on "behind the scenes." Also, the students get an insight into the responsibilities the teachers have and what it takes to run a school of this size.

A meeting of the teachers and the "substitute teachers" was held immediately after school to discuss the happenings of the day. Mr. Dittman remarked that from his observation, the day had been very successful.

The question, "Was it a success, and why?" was discussed. Many helpful suggestions were made. One student thought that the program would be more advantageous if it were extended to three days. This would give the student teacher a chance to follow through on the day's assignments.

SOMEONE SUGGESTED that possibly another time of the school year would be better—when there might be less activities going on. Another suggestion was that in order to have more senior participation, there should be two students assigned to each teacher instead of only one.

The manner in which the students are selected was a problem brought up. It was suggested that each student's record be examined to be sure he or she was qualified and interested in the particular area. College-bound prospective teachers should have priority in the class they have asked to teach.

All these suggestions will be submitted to the Student Council for evaluation and study.

THE SENIOR STUDENTS that participated in this program and the teachers they replaced are: Janet Keisler, Mr. Baird; Paul Magiera, Mr. Boaz; Jim Cole, Mrs. Boaz; Alan Moorman, Mr. Brown; Sonya Pickus, Mrs. Cassidy; Oma Lee Belke, Mr. Corrigan; Steve Aschenbrenner, Mr. Cramer; Milda Kuzmickas, Mrs. Cramer; Tom Schissler, Mr. Dallman; Dan Runyard, Mr. Denison; Bryan Cain, Mr. Dittman; Sandra Barnstable, Miss Donovan; John Proesel, Mr. Edwards; Bill Yanca, Mr. Felt; Art Wollpert, Mr. Foster; Ione Cribb, Miss Frantz; Jim Bliesch, Mr. Good; Vince Nausada, Miss Gorczynski; Carol Ruhl, Mr. Gudgel; Lois Wagner, Miss Hueber; Carolyn Stoffel, Mr. Kirkman; Marge Ptasienski, Mr. Lear; Bill Dressel, Mr. Leon; Diane Mantis, Mrs. Maplethorpe; John Roach, Mr. Nelson; Faye Mann, Miss Nickel-son; LeRoy Gallagher, Mr. Polley; Todd Eckert, Mr. Rush; David Hay, Mr. Sheehan; Carole-Jo Ness, Mrs. Sheehan; Sally January, Miss Slavin; Charlotte Horton, Miss Smiley; Barbara Yates, Mr. Smouse; Andy Milowski, Mr. Stillson; Carol Lupa, Mrs. Tulumello; Karen Van Patten, Mrs. Walther; Russell Cote, Mr. Walther; and Mary Lpu Geist, Miss Willoughby.

The students who substituted for the secretaries, cooks, and the janitors were: Sis Christensen, Mrs. Clarke; Becky Anderson, Mrs. Olzewski; Kitty Saylor, Mrs. Radke; Jill Gaston, Mrs. Brown; Judy Malcek, Mrs. Cary; Betty Freund, Mrs. Gaylord; Donna Simon, Mrs. J. Brown; Donna Winstead, Mrs. Gel-den; Ray Temi, Mr. Olsen; Rich Schlarbaum, Mr. Haase; Alan Cheterbok, Mr. Larson; Joe Zeien, Mr. Andersen; and Ron Mack, Mr. Michaelson.

Sequoits Drop Opening Fray To Grayslake

By Dick Gudgeon

Antioch opened the baseball season on a sour note by dropping a 5-2 decision to Grayslake at the winners' diamond. The Sequoits were limited to just one hit from two Ram pitchers. Jim King, who relieved Larry Riemers when Riemers lost his control, allowed Antioch its only hit of the game, but only gave one walk in four innings.

Sig Nielsen, who hurled for Antioch, pitched well but was hampered by several miscues in the infield and the lack of hitting by his teammates.

ANTIOCH PLAYED Round Lake here Tuesday and on Wednesday the team hosted Fenton. The team travels to Grant Friday to clash with the powerful Bulldogs.

Last Friday's game with Elia-Ver-non was postponed because of bad weather and will be played at a later date.

Oscars in Antioch For Senior Cast

Attendance at the senior class play indicated that the play, "What a Life," was a smashing success.

The cast of the play did an exceptionally good job, most apparent at the end of the play when the audience applauded loudest.

Possibly the best actor and actress were Jim Tully, who played the assistant principal, and Mary Lou Geist, who played the frantic music teacher whose instruments were stolen. A runner-up for the best actress would probably be Ione Cribb, who played a carefree P. E. teacher.

Prom Plans Moving Rapidly, Queen, Court Are Chosen

By Nancy Nemece

The third prom committee meeting was held Friday. Reports on the progress of the committees are as follows:

The cloth from the ceiling and sides committee is being checked on by Trudy Good.

THE BAND HAS been decided on and the committee also discussed how the queen and her court should be chosen. A special committee nominated 15 girls for the queen and her court. The girls are:

Sharon Berke, Norma Brown, Sharon Dittman, Sue Duha, Karen Horton, Janice Hughes, Lynn Kapell, Sandy Kubs, Joanne Masek, Bunny Schley, Judy Smith, Nancy

Srch, Dani Stratton, Judy Worsley, Sue Owens.

From the girls the junior class voted on the top five girls for the court. They are Sharon Dittman, Janice Hughes, Judy Smith, Dani Stratton, and Judy Worsley. The final vote for the queen was Monday and the girl for queen will be kept secret until the night of the prom.

Two more new committees were set up, the construction and the cloud committees. Co-chairmen of the construction committee are Terry Ptack and Don Pyles, co-chairmen on the cloud committee are Sue Duha and Sherry Davis.

Library Receives Grant for Books

In answer to an urgent plea for books for the library, a $500 grant was received and quickly put to use. The books that were bought with the money are already on the shelves.

Although the library has received this grant, it still needs more books to fill in the gap that occupies most of the shelves.

If the readers have books which are suitable for the high school library, they are asked to drop them off at the high school library. If they cannot leave them at the library, call Antioch 1421, and library club members will pick up the books.

Fresh Leebies Found in Antioch

If you have been wondering what fresh leebies (pronounced lee-beez) are, you have come to the right place.

But before you can be told about fresh leebies, you must get some background on these delightful little creatures.

THEY HAVE BEEN in Antioch for some time, but have just recently been discovered by three students—Oma Lee Belke, Alan Moorman, and Dan Conrad (arranged in the order in which they learned what fresh leebies are).

Oma Lee was the first person to actually find and speak to a fresh leebie. That is a story in itself. She found him in Antioch, lying on the sidewalk. As soon as she discovered what it was she took it over to Alan's house. Mrs. Moorman made them take it out of the house right away. So they did. They took it over to Dan Conrad's house, figuring that he might know what to do with it.

Be sure and read the next issue of the Tom-Tom for the further adventures of the Fresh Leebies, Chapter 2.

Respect Your Parents, They'll Respect You

By Karen Lightsey

Let's all get on the ball. We're getting carried away with all the privileges our parents and teachers have given us. Even though they allow us to behave like adults in many respects, that doesn't give us any right to completely forget about them. They are still our superiors and deserve to be shown a certain amount of respect and common courtesy. And it looks like a lot of us are overlooking this fact.

No wonder the older folks are always complaining about juvenile delinquents and "those darn kids." All they ever see or hear about are the mistakes we make. If we were to show them a little respect and common courtesy, maybe we can convince them that we aren't a "beat generation" after all.

WE ARE TOMORROW'S leaders. And although there are many things we must learn for ourselves, why not profit by our parents' experience? They have lived long lives and are much wiser than we, so let's not ignore their words of wisdom. Take their advice whenever you can and even if you don't always agree with them, have the courtesy to listen and at least think it over.

We are living in an era of equality and have a lot more to say about things than our parents did as teenagers. We can thank them for making this possible. Let's show our appreciation by giving them the respect they deserve.

Co. Realtors Ask Blight Removal

A massive attack on blight and deterioration should be launched now in every community of Lake County, Keith Leech of Zion, president of the Waukegan-Lake County Board of Realtors, declared today.

Leech made this statement at a time when hundreds of real estate boards throughout the country are observing Realtor Week, April 12-18. The special week is designed to tell the public of the high aims and obligations of realtors.

"IT WILL REQUIRE close cooperation from both municipal officials and property owners, but with sound planning and proper enforcement, a drive to rehabilitate and conserve older neighborhoods can be successful," the local board president said.

Leech added that the realtors of Lake County including Charles Cermak and Leon Sexauer of Antioch, are prepared to give full support by providing technical advice and assistance to help communities launch rehabilitation and conservation programs.

"I will be most happy to appoint a special committee of realtors this year to study run-down areas that lend themselves to neighborhood conservation," he advised. He noted that the full cooperation of the Build America Better committee of the National Assn. of Real Estate Boards already has been assured.

Firemen Busy; 8 Grass Fires and Zion Blaze

Antioch's fire department was kept on its feet during the week with eight grass fires, one garage fire and aid to the departments fighting the million dollar auditorium fire at Zion on Saturday.

The many grass fires this week were due mainly to people burning trash and leaves. With the ground so dry, plus the high winds the fires continually got out of control, a fire department spokesman said. He urged caution in leaf burning.

THE RESCUE SQUAD also was called on the Zion fire and treated numerous firemen for cuts and bruises.

According to Herman Holbek, captain of the Antioch Rescue Squad, if it had not been for the aid of the Waukegan Fire dept. and the strategic location of a nearby lagoon, the damage would have been much worse than it was.

School Boards.....

AT LAKE VILLA, top vote-getter was William Thompson, a former assistant to the county superintendent of schools. Ernest Nielsen and Robert McLelland also were elected. Nielsen is the only holdover from the old board. Ousted were Robert Randall and John Emerson.

Two incumbents returned to the Channel Lake board: Dr. Stanley Anderson and Elmer Eberman, board president. Beverly Roberts was elected to fill the unexpired term of Vern Heath.

New Money.....

on May 4 will be devoted to plans for a complete sewer and water system for the village. Richard Thacker, village engineer, will unfold plans for the system and will attempt to peg costs and methods of financing.

The lack of sewer system in the village is becoming an acute problem, Thacker said, and suggested work be done on it soon. He told the trustees Monday that it would be 1962 or 1963 before it could be built even if work begins now.

Lindenhurst does not now own its water system but plans for purchasing the privately-owned system also will be discussed at the meeting. "A water system is a good asset to get sewer system financing," Thacker said.

Thacker noted that the village may find a difficult time in getting financing for a sewer system for on its present valuation of $1,670,000, only $173,000 could be realized from the maximum the village could levy. That is not nearly enough, he said.

THE BOARD ALSO heard from officers of the county health dept. who noted that "if land does not meet requirements (for septic systems), then a sewer system is the only alternative."

The health officials, Dr. Arthur Baker and Jack Womack, chief sanitarian, gave the board some tips in caring for septic systems and saying that yeast and colas are not good for cleaning the systems. Yeast will clean the tank but clogs the pipes, Womack said. Cola may do it also but is harmful in other ways, he added.

"Mother nature is the best to clean tanks," he said.

IN OTHER BUSINESS, Trustee Craig Henderson asked all members of the board to submit spending estimates for the next year to him so that he could have a budget proposal for the next regular meeting.

An ordinance was passed forbidding parking on the streets of the village during a snowfall of more than 1 inch. Penalty is $1 to $200 and the village can tow away autos of persons violating the ordinance. Frost is leaving the area, the board noted, and emergency repair work will be done to the streets until permanent repairs can be made by the state.

Special Section A First for Lindenhurst, For Antioch News

The Village of Lindenhurst claims it is unique in many respects and first among all Lake County communities in new ideas. It is proven once again this week in The Antioch News.

A special section of the paper contains Lindenhurst's annual report which serves a three-fold purpose:

1. It provides residents of the village with facts they need to know about their community concerning progress made, finances and plans for the future;

2. It serves as good publicity for the village among all other readers of the newspaper in this area; and 3. It provides an excellent advertising medium to merchants who wish to show public spirit and to sell goods at the same time. The section was paid for by advertising of merchants in Antioch, Lake Villa and Lindenhurst.

EVERY RESIDENT of Lindenhurst will receive a copy of the annual report and it will be given to new residents this summer to introduce them to the village government.

Academy Award Choices Differ Somewhat Here

Antioch's choice for academy award winners differs slightly from the experts but local theatre patrons picked two of three of the top actor awards.

David Niven was passed over as best actor by the Antioch fans in favor of Paul Newman but the local patrons agreed with the experts in picking Susan Hayward as best actress and Burl Ives as supporting actor.

THE CONTEST WAS run by the Lakes Theatre and winners were announced this week by Dick Meyers, manager. No one scored 100 percent, but two contestants won second prizes.

John Burke of Rt. 1 won a choice of a record album from the Record Nook and Gayle Neadstone of Rt. 1 will receive a $10 gift certificate from Barnstable & Brogan. Both
